

Job Description: Youth Coordinator

Bainbridge Artisan Resource Network (BARN) is a community makerspace and learning place for all ages. BARN's mission is to grow and inspire a creative community through craft, learning, and service. The mission of the youth coordinator is to make BARN a good place for young people. The person selected will have considerable influence in defining "a good place for young people" and determining how to execute this mission. This is a half-time position during the school year, with some evening and weekend presence required, and a full-time position in summer.

Responsibilities:

- Execute existing youth programs (Teen Night, Youth Maker Monday, Summer Youth)
- Evaluate and improve existing programs
- Increase participation and registration by young people at BARN overall
- Increase BARN membership rates by young people
- Clarify and redevelop policies related to young people and BARN's core value of inclusivity
- Help studios create opportunities for young people at BARN
- Strengthen or create ties with local organizations whose missions align with BARN's to develop and deliver creative opportunities for young people

Qualifications:

- Passion for and understanding of arts education for young people and BARN's mission
- Bachelor's degree preferred, or equivalent experience in arts education or arts administration. New or recent grads are welcome to apply.
- Comfort with technology and systems; willingness and ability to learn new technologies quickly
- Communicator and influencer; ability to get people aligned to execute goals, programs, and plans
- Ability to both work at big-picture level and execute details
- Child safety screening/background check required

Hours: 20 hours/week September - May including some weekends/evenings; June - August 40 hours/week in summer.

Location: In-person

Pay rate: $22-$27/hour depending on experience
